Thailand Post's Announcement
Subject – The provision of data for international postal items containing products

---

Due to strengthened inspections of international postal items by international Customs, Thailand Post Ltd., (THP) requests that senders provide accurate, complete and detailed data in accordance to CN22, CN23 and CP72. Senders are requested to ensure all information is accurate and complete in English on the customs declaration forms and D-post Inter (https://dpostinter.thailandpost.com/) before sending items via postal services in the respect of the following elements :

1. Sender's full name and address
2. Recipient's full name and address
3. Recipient's telephone number and email address
4. Item details, such as quantity, net weight, type/description of the item, and value
5. Country of origin of the goods
6. 6, 8 or 10 digit Harmonized System (HS code)

Failure to provide the complete information could result in customs clearance delays or in the return of the item containing goods to senders. In the case of return, senders will be responsible for the returning fee specified by THP.
